Welcome to Panizzi & Geregach CPA.

We're in the Accounting field, but to us you're more than a number.

While other firms might treat you like you're a dime a dozen, we've built our solid reputation and have grown our customer base by truly caring about our clients' individual needs. Our time and attention are yours. When providing you with our expert accounting and tax preparation services, we answer your questions, address your concerns, and give you peace of mind knowing that your financials and filings will be done accurately and on time.

Expertise and accessibility – At Panizzi and Geregach CPA, you'll find both.

Our team of professionals, Mark Panizzi CPA, George Geregach CPA, and Tonya Veal has over 50 years of collective experience in the accounting field. We know personal and business accounting and tax preparation inside and out.

When you call us, expect to talk with a real live person. Our Office Manager, Pam Terney, sees to fielding your inquiries and putting you in direct contact with our expert accounting team. And when we're not immediately available, we respond quickly – because your priorities are our priorities.

Our local roots reach far beyond to serve clients with accounting needs anywhere within the United States

We take great pride in serving clients in our local area in western Pennsylvania. We also welcome clients from other regions and states.

From personal income tax preparation services to an array of business tax services and bookkeeping services, we promise prompt and personalized service no matter where you're located.

Don't be just a number. Contact us today to get the one-on-one, personalized service you deserve.
